Where Lifestyle Meets Location in the CBD

From the 10th floor of the sought-after 250E building, this polished one-bedroom apartment puts the best of Melbourne right at your feet. Trams are outside your doorstep, Melbourne Central and Emporium are moments away, and the tree-lined stretch of Elizabeth Street connects you to Queen Victoria Market, Hardware Lane dining and RMIT University within minutes on foot.

Generous windows draw natural light into the open-plan living and dining area, revealing a broad CBD panorama that evolves with the city below. A dedicated study nook by the window provides a ready-made work-from-home setting, while the layout suits both quiet nights in and relaxed entertaining with ease. The kitchen features generous cabinetry, a gas cooktop, and appliances that integrate with the living space for effortless everyday function.

The bedroom comfortably fits a king-sized bed, complemented by mirrored sliding built-in robes and its own urban outlook. A generous bathroom offers a bathtub with overhead show...
