Architect-Designed Luxury with Private Garden

Positioned on the ground floor of Kirra Gardens, a striking boutique residence designed by C. Kairouz Architects with landscaping by Jamie Durie of Durie Design, this three-bedroom apartment delivers a unique combination of architectural sophistication, built-in sustainability, generous proportions and true ground-level liveability. Pristine and presenting as new, every detail has been considered to the highest standard.

The architectural vision extends well beyond the facade, with the building's distinctive sculptural forms finding their way inside through refined joinery, carefully chosen fixtures and a layered palette of natural materials.

Wide-plank engineered oak floors flow through an expansive open-plan living and dining area bathed in natural light, where floor-to-ceiling glass opens onto a private courtyard garden with its own entry, established plantings, and a paved entertaining space. This indoor-outdoor connection feels closer to a house than an apartment and sets thi...
