Space and Character in a Sought-After Mill Park Pocket

Set on a sizeable block within the leafy River Gum Estate pocket of Mill Park, this solid brick family home delivers space, comfort and genuine versatility across a well-planned single-level layout. From the moment you arrive, established gardens and a neat brick facade set a welcoming tone from the street.

Inside, a raked, timber-lined ceiling brings warmth and character to the living and dining zone, where an open fireplace forms a natural gathering point through the cooler months. Two further sitting rooms and a separate family room offer flexibility for however the household chooses to use the space, ideal for a growing household or multi-generational living. The well-appointed kitchen, complete with gas cooktop, dishwasher and a convenient walk-in pantry, sits at the core of the home and keeps the household connected.

Outdoors, a wide covered patio stretches alongside established, low-maintenance gardens, a wonderful setting for entertaining or simply unwinding in the evening, ...
