Skyline Views, Urban Energy, Everyday Convenience

Positioned directly opposite Queen Victoria Market and moments from the CBD, this immaculately located two-bedroom apartment presents an outstanding opportunity for those who want the city at their doorstep without compromising on space or flow. Floor-to-ceiling glass opens onto a wide balcony that frames sweeping skyline views, giving the apartment a wonderful connection to Melbourne's energy while still feeling like a peaceful retreat to come home to.

Inside, a clever floorplan places both bedrooms at opposite ends of the home, with the balcony accessible from both the main bedroom and the sun-filled living area. The main bedroom is a quiet escape with excellent natural light, while the second bedroom offers real flexibility, equally suited as a comfortable guest room or a dedicated study for those working from home. Living and dining flow together as one bright, welcoming space, and are finished with split-system air conditioning for comfort throughout the year.
