The unique layout features a light-filled and air-conditioned living and dining room with the kitchen elevated and open making it ideal for entertaining. There are stainless steel appliances and sleek black cabinets along with glass balustrading that separates the kitchen from the living room without closing off the space. A wall of floor-to-ceiling glass sliding doors opens to the sunny and private balcony with plenty of room to host guests, dine outdoors or cook on the barbeque on warm summer nights.

There is one bedroom, with a built-in robe and an ensuite, ensuring a low-maintenance lifestyle without compromising on comfort. An in-unit laundry, a storage area and a single car parking space are included and the living area is large enough to accommodate a study/office zone for those who w...
