Set just across the road from a park and only minutes from schools, shops and major transport links, it's hard to imagine a more family-friendly lifestyle than this. A modern facade sets the tone for this well-maintained home where four bedrooms, two bathrooms and generous living spaces will keep the entire family happy.

Ample natural light enhances the spacious and airy feel of the open-plan kitchen, dining and living room with direct access to a shaded alfresco. There's a centre island, a tiled backsplash and stainless steel appliances for the eager cook ensuring preparing meals will be a joy. A separate family room extends the living space even further and would make the ideal playroom or home office.

For privacy, the master is separated from the guest bedrooms and is complete with its very own walk-in robe and ensuite. Built-in robe...
