Modern home close to schools, parks and playgrounds

The ideal combination of easy-care living and contemporary comfort is on offer for the new owners of this modern family home. You will love living within such a prized pocket of Tarneit with parks, playgrounds and schools only moments away.

A central hallway draws you through from the front door to the open-plan kitchen, dining and living zone. This generous gathering space has large windows and views over the backyard while those with a flair for food will feel drawn to the well-equipped kitchen.

Cooking for loved ones is made easy thanks to the modern stainless steel appliances and abundance of bench space plus there's breakfast bar seating and ample storage. A glass sliding door connects the living area to the backyard where you can tend to the gardens, play with the kids or even look to add an entertainer's patio.

There's room for everyone to spread out and relax with four good-size bedrooms including three with built-in robes and easy access to the main bathroom. Your master b...
