Contemporary townhouse close to schools, parks and shops

A 25-minute drive (approx.) north of the Melbourne CBD will take you to this modern and stylish, two-storey townhouse. Buyers looking for that idyllic first home won't want to miss this exciting opportunity while young families, downsizers and astute investors will also feel drawn to this Coburg North property.

From the entry, you can make your way upstairs to the second floor where you will find the open-plan and light-filled kitchen, dining and living zone. Sure to be the hub of daily life, this generous gathering space is comfortable and inviting with contemporary touches throughout and a wall of sliding doors that leads to the covered balcony.

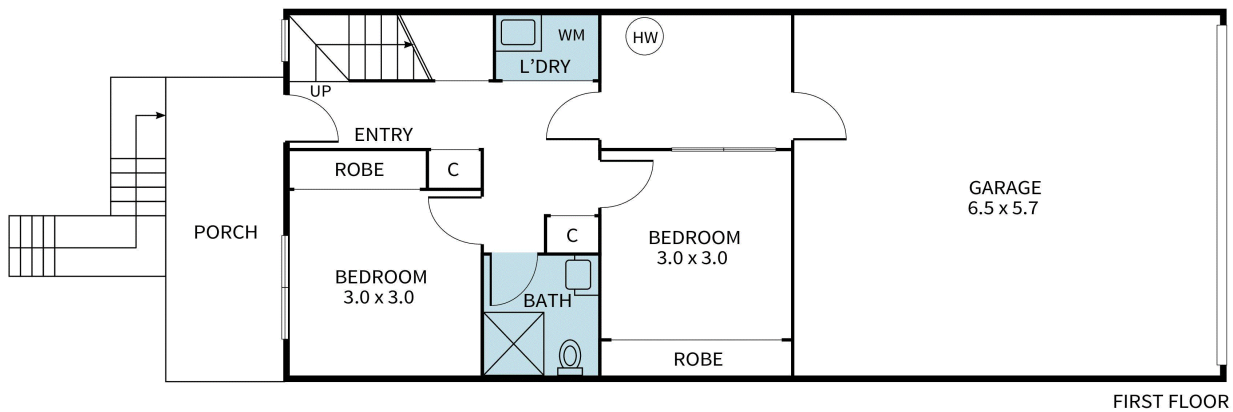

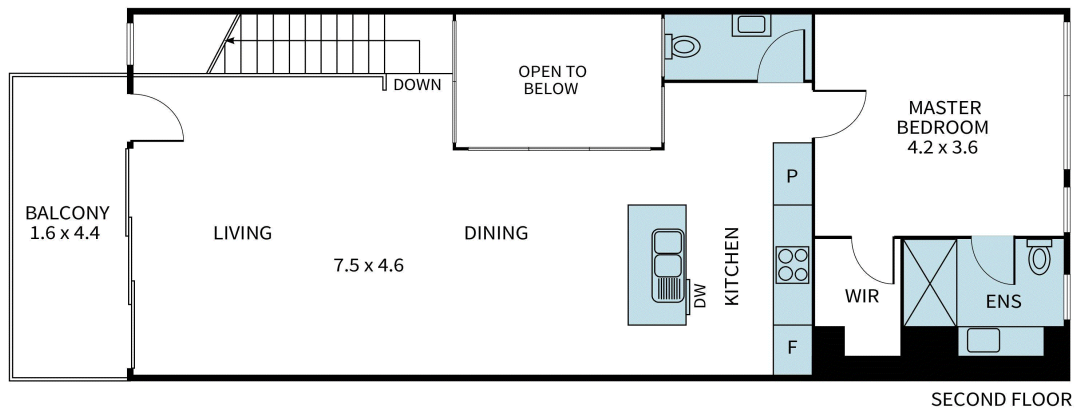

On-trend flooring flows underfoot and continues throughout the kitchen which also boasts a centre island and sweeping benchtops. A suite of quality stainless steel appliances will make preparing meals a pleasure whether that's an intimate dinner for two or a gourmet feast for friends and family.

A powder room and the master suite are also...
