Your dream family home across from a park

From this modern family home's prime corner lot location, you are only a short walk from Newbury Primary School, local shops and picturesque parks. A gorgeous reserve, playground and walking paths are just across the road and you're also within easy reach of major roads and the centre of Craigieburn for absolute convenience.

The highly sought-after location is matched only by the family-friendly layout with four bedrooms and two bathrooms along with a spacious and open-plan living area set in the heart of the home.

A suite of stainless steel appliances and an abundance of bench space will make cooking for friends and family a joy as you chat with guests in the dining area or watch the kids play in the living room. There's also a study nook for those who work from home while sliding glass doors connect you to the covered patio where you can cook on the barbeque and admire views over the expansive, fenced and low-maintenance backyard.

All three of the guest bedrooms are nestled in t...
