For an active lifestyle Darebin Creek Trail spans some 30kms to run, walk or ride that interconnects with the Yarra River. Recreational reserves host local sporting clubs, particularly popular with children complemented by a range of public golf courses.

Bundoora Park, Melbourne's most diverse park offers over 180 hectares to unwind with family and friends. Home to the popular children's farm and café providing tractor rides and animal feeding opportunities, the park is scattered with many much-loved playgrounds and BBQ areas for gatherings that form memories for a lifetime.

Celebrating bespoke contemporary living at its finest, this exquisite range of multi-living homes have been architecturally designed with intelligent floorplans that flow with zoned accommodation adapting with ease from tranquil living to entertaining.

Conceived with a focus on light filled spaces complemented by seamless outdoor connections with expanses of glass, each residence...
